

Announcement for the participants/delegates

All participants are informed about the following updates pertaining to the preparation of the 13th Annual International CESI Conference, 2023:

- Letters of Acceptance have been sent to all those whose papers/panels have been accepted.
- Letters of Regret have been sent to those whose papers were not considered for presentation. However, they can still register for Congress as a delegate and take part in the academic activities.
- Online Registration Portal is currently open for the participants to register for the conference.
- Details about possible accommodation (those registering without accommodation) has been mentioned in the FAQs document uploaded on the CESI website.
- Bank details have been displayed on the website to facilitate payment.
- Conference Schedule to be circulated soon and uploaded on the CESI website.
- Kindly keep checking the website for further updates and announcements.